

CONSULTATION AND QUOTING TIMELINE

Planning your wedding can be an overwhelming experience and it can be hard to know where to start, in what order you need to organise things, and when you need to make all your final arrangements. To help you to understand when you need to start organising your wedding flowers and how long the process can take, we have created a timeline and checklist.

Please note: The floral consultation process is quite detailed and time consuming, it can take a few months to iron out all the finer details, requirements, make your final selections and receive a quote. We apologise in advance should the process seem cumbersome and thank you for your patience and understanding throughout your consultation journey.

Time Frame	Action	Check
Prior to entering into the consultation and quoting process, please ensure you have taken time to read our information pack and price list; ensuring you have completed our five 'where to start steps' and your Floral Planner form.

On the Day

DELIVERY

Your bridal flowers will be delivered to your accommodation approximately 2 hours prior to the ceremony, or as requested.

Our delivery service includes delivery of hair flowers to the salon/in room, segregation of the bride's and groom's flowers and assistance to fasten your buttonholes and corsages.

COLLECTION

If you have opted to collect your bridal flowers, please ensure the person collecting them presents themselves to Floral Collections approximately 2 hours prior to the ceremony. It is advisable that two people collect to ensure the safe travel of your flowers.

CEREMONY & RECEPTION

Your ceremony and reception setup will be complete well ahead of your arrival and will be waiting for you and your guests.
